Experts In Everything?

“Bottom line: Nobody knows everything about every place and every time and every kind of record. So remember, just because you couldn't find something in 2016 (or 2015), doesn't mean you can't find it in 2017! It's all about the sources. Take classes, keep learning and sharpen that axe!” - Scott Fisher 1/9/17

C. M. HOWARD

The Sun was advised at press hour this morning that Charley M. Howard of Denison died last night. Details of funeral were not available, but it is presumed that the funeral will be held at the Bratcher-Moore Chapel tomorrow, with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery here.

Mr. Howard was a resident of the Whitewright community for many years and had many friends here. His wife died about a year ago. He is survived by two sons, Robert Howard and Charles Howard.

I do not know if Mary J Rowe got married. I can only find her in 2 census records, when she is single, living at home as the daughter of her parents (in this case she is also living with her grandparents).

I decide to try to search all the census records for her mother, Susan E Howard Rowe.

Stella has 4 sisters according to the obituary photo on the far right. I know the married last name of one of those sisters, Mary Mitchell, and I can click to go right to her memorial page on FindAGrave, even if she is not buried in the same cemetery. Her sister, child, spouse and parents are all linked to her memorial on FindAGrave.

If the obituary is not already listed on FindAGrave, then just Google "obituary Name Year State." This is especially helpful for finding family members of deceased after 2000

DEATHS

MRS. C. M. HOWARD

Mrs. C. M. Howard, 66, for many years a resident of the Whitewright community, died Saturday at a Denison hospital following a stroke on Thursday. The Howards moved to Denison about three years ago after selling their farm at Pilot Grove.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Denison, conducted by Rev. Ed Bayless, pastor. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery here, directed by Bratcher-Moore of Denison.

Mrs. Howard was born in Morristown, Tenn., Dec. 16, 1885, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hodges. She came to Texas as a child and was married to Charlie M. Howard on Dec. 25, 1906, at Whitewright. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Robert Howard of Durant Okla., and Charles M. Howard Jr. of Dallas; one brother, W. D. Howard of Sherman; four sisters, Mrs. Mamie Mitchell of Sherman, Mrs. B. F. Blanton of Denison, Mrs. Sam Cottor of Bonham and Mrs. Mamie Butler of Wylie; and one grandchild.
