About the club

Our goal is to provide programs and resources to help genealogists to gain knowledge. We work with the Cranberry Public Library and Cranberry Historical Society to co-sponsor programs of interest to a broader audience. Our club meetings are open to the public.

We are located in Cranberry Township, Butler County, Pennsylvania - north of the city of Pittsburgh. Our members research ancestors all over the United States, Canada, Europe, and around the world!

"Like branches on a tree, our lives may grow in different directions yet our roots remain as one."

Field Trips

Join us in the summer for visits to local cemetery, where we learn to decipher old tombstones and fulfill photo requests from BillionGraves and Find-A-Grave.

Cranberry Township Cemetery Book

Club members located all of the known cemeteries in Cranberry Township, and read the headstones in each one. The inscriptions were then compiled and published as a book.

This soft-cover book is available for $10 through our website or at a club meeting. We can ship the book to you for a small additional charge. Visit our website for an order form.

Learn & Grow

At our meetings, you might see a formal presentation by an experienced genealogist, a webinar on the excellent projection screens in the meeting room, training on genealogy software or website use, round-table discussions of common genealogical problems with question & answer sessions, a field trip, or a joint event with the Library or Cranberry Historical Society.

Meetings are held monthly, typically on the fourth Wednesday, except during November and December.

We meet in the Cranberry Public Library Franklin Station room, located in the Cranberry Township Municipal Center. Librarians can direct you to the room.

Our dues are just $10 per year. You are added to our e-mail list to receive meeting announcements, reminders, and newsletters. Our newsletter contains articles of interest, a review of the prior meetings, and information on other genealogy meetings and events.

Our membership year is January through December. You may join at any time.
